

Richard Allan (The Rev), the Aardvarx manager sent following message in response to the recent Aardvarx -v- Phantoms game:

"Just a quick note to say thanks for the game on Sunday, you got a well deserved win and the game was played largely in the right spirit. Also, your new shirts look great! You've got a great team, the game was a pleasure to play, and we're looking forward to more fixtures with you guys in the future!"

Toby Beevers (Phantoms assistant manager) also sent a message to the Phantoms players:

"Big thanks to all the Phantoms who played against the Aardvarx; it was a great team effort, everybody played their part well, we won and had fun doing it!"
