

The members meeting went ahead last weekend; the atmosphere was good and there was a lot of open discussion about matters affecting the club. The topics discussed were diverse, ranging from membership numbers, finances and coaching plans for the next year through to Christmas parties and the possibility of arranging games abroad! Minutes from the meeting will be sent to all members within the next fortnight.