

The new rink at Altrincham, which was due to open at the end of November, now won't be opening until January 2007. The upside of this is that the Manchester Phoenix will be playing an additional 5 games at Deeside, so there's more quality hockey to watch locally. On the downside though, their next game is on this coming Saturday, December 2nd, with an 8pm face off. This is later than previous Saturday night games and has a knock on effect that means that the Phantoms training session has had to be cancelled. The remaining Phoenix games are all scheduled for Sunday nights so our sessions will be unaffected.
